Program Description:

The Care Management Service assists seniors in Contra Costa County who may need emergency assistance with health or social issues. The program provides individual counseling and intervention for seniors 60 years of age or older. The program works closely with Contra Costa County services and additional service providers. Care Management is the first point of entry for a senior seeking services from MOWSOS.

Scope of Work:

The Case Management Specialist (CMS) position is responsible for serving clients in the field and in the office. Services may include assistance with connecting seniors with services both inside and outside of our organization. The goal of the CMS is to understand the clients' needs and assist them so that they may remain independent and healthy for as long as possible.

The CMS is expected to work closely with other community based organizations and health care organizations in order to provide the best care and outcomes.

The CMS position is full-time, 40 hours per week. The position requires extensive field work as well as occasional meetings on weekends and evenings. Although this position requires extensive record keeping, coordination, and program oversight, this is also a field position requiring direct client interventions in client homes at other locations.

This position will be primarily located in Far East County, requiring occasional meetings in the Walnut Creek office.

The CMS reports to the Director of Care Management.

Duties and Responsibilities:

Fulfill all duties as they relate to the program funding, including but not limited to:

1. Assist clients within the entire funding area
2. Ensure accurate and timely reporting
3. Coordinate services with community partners
4. Maintain a current list of community resources

Interview prospective clients and prepare comprehensive, multi-disciplinary assessments and evaluations; determine if clients meet intake criteria, which will include the gathering of information from client and family, current and previous service providers, and from others involved with the client.
